In our example a student chooses courses from the B.A. Social Sciences.

Please always check the study level when preparing your learning agreement. In case you are studying at the B.A. level you can only choose courses from the undergraduate programmes. You will find further information on contents and credits within the document.

Please create your learning agreement on the basis of the information provided in the section „module element“ (see examples below).

The section „examples for lectures“ is only meant as an orientation. Lectures within one module element always correspond to the given contents. However, the focus of a lecture and therefore a title might change every semester. Therefore, it is advisable to use module element titles for the learning agreement.
